radio for the vcu student

WJRB caters to the needs of VCU students with a wide variety of music, campus news. and special programs. We broadcast from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. every day and we're the only progressive station in town which broadcasts after dark. Besides our regular shows bringing you a variety of today's popular music, we have special programs devoted to one type of music, such as JAZZ or BLUES. Each the day, we give information on campus activities, announce rides wanted and
